

DEPARTMENT OF STATEWASHINGTON

March 11, 2004

Excellency:

I have the honor to refer to recent discussions between representatives of the Government of the United States of America and the Government of Grenada regarding the surrender of persons to the International Criminal Court.

Reaffirming the importance of bringing to justice those who commit genocide, crimes against humanity and war crimes,

Recalling that the Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court done at Rome on July 17, 1998 by the United Nations Diplomatic Conference of Plenipotentiaries on the Establishment of an International Criminal Court is intended to complement and not supplant national criminal jurisdiction,

His Excellency

Elvin Nimrod,

Minister for Foreign Affairs and International Trade of Grenada.

DIPLOMATIC NOTE

Considering that the Government of the United States of America and the Government of Grenada have each expressed their intention to investigate and to prosecute where appropriate acts within the jurisdiction of the International Criminal Court alleged to have been committed by their officials, employees, military personnel or other nationals.

Bearing in mind Article 98 of the Rome Statute,

I have the honor to propose the following agreement:

1. For purposes of this Agreement, "persons of the United States of America" are current or former United States Government officials, employees (including contractors), or military personnel or United States nationals.

2. Persons of the United States of America present in the territory of Grenada shall not, absent the express consent of the Government of the United States of America,

(a) be surrendered or transferred by any means to the International Criminal Court for any purpose, or

(b) be surrendered or transferred by any means to any other entity or third country, or expelled to a third country, for the purpose of surrender to or transfer to the International Criminal Court.

3. When the Government of Grenada extradites, surrenders, or otherwise transfers a person of the United States of America to a third country, the Government of Grenada will not agree to the surrender or transfer of that person to the International Criminal Court by the third country, absent the express consent of the Government of the United States of America.

4. This Agreement shall remain in force until one year after the date on which one Party notifies the other of its intent to terminate the Agreement. The provisions of this Agreement shall continue to apply with respect to any act occurring, or any allegation arising, before the effective date of termination.

If the proposal set forth herein is acceptable to the Government of Grenada, this note and Your Excellency's affirmative note in reply shall constitute an agreement between our two Governments which shall enter into force on the date of Your note.

For the Secretary of State:

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "Stephen S. Radak". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first name "Stephen" and last name "Radak" being the most legible parts.

PERMANENT MISSION OF GRENADA TO THE UNITED NATIONS
800 SECOND AVENUE, SUITE 400-K, NEW YORK, N.Y. 10017
TELEPHONE: (212) 599-0301
FAX: (212) 599-1540

March 11, 2004

Excellency:

I have the honor to refer to Your Excellency's note of March 11, 2004, which reads as follows:

"Excellency:

I have the honor to refer to recent discussions between representatives of the Government of the United States of America and the Government of Grenada regarding the surrender of persons to the International Criminal Court.

Reaffirming the importance of bringing to justice those who commit genocide, crimes against humanity and war crimes,

Recalling that the Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court done at Rome on July 17, 1998 by the United Nations Diplomatic Conference of Plenipotentiaries on the Establishment of an International Criminal Court is intended to complement and not supplant national criminal jurisdiction,

His Excellency,

Colin L. Powell,

The Secretary of State.

Considering that the Government of the United States of America and the Government of Grenada have each expressed their intention to investigate and to prosecute where appropriate acts within the jurisdiction of the International Criminal Court alleged to have been committed by their officials, employees, military personnel or other nationals,

Bearing in mind Article 98 of the Rome Statute,

I have the honor to propose the following agreement:

1. For purposes of this Agreement, "persons of the United States of America" are current or former United States Government officials, employees (including contractors), or military personnel or United States nationals.
2. Persons of the United States of America present in the territory of Grenada shall not, absent the express consent of the Government of the United States of America,
 - (a) be surrendered or transferred by any means to the International Criminal Court for any purpose, or

(b) be surrendered or transferred by any means to any other entity or third country, or expelled to a third country, for the purpose of surrender to or transfer to the International Criminal Court.

3. When the Government of Grenada extradites, surrenders, or otherwise transfers a person of the United States of America to a third country, the Government of Grenada will not agree to the surrender or transfer of that person to the International Criminal Court by the third country, absent the express consent of the Government of the United States of America.

4. This Agreement shall remain in force until one year after the date on which one Party notifies the other of its intent to terminate the Agreement. The provisions of this Agreement shall continue to apply with respect to any act occurring, or any allegation arising, before the effective date of termination.

If the proposal set forth herein is acceptable to the Government of Grenada, this note and Your Excellency's affirmative note in reply shall constitute an agreement between our two Governments which shall enter into force on the date of Your note."

I have the honor to inform Your Excellency that the proposed text in Your Note is acceptable to the Government of Grenada, and confirm that Your Note and this Note shall constitute an agreement between our two Governments which shall enter into force on this date.

Philip Marshall
FOR GOVERNMENT OF GRENADE.